We are the seniors of seventy-three
United as you all may see

All the years we've shared together
Through thickly foul and fair weather

We've had our pains and our fears
Down through these last and happy years
But we the seniors aren't always right
We've had our arguments along with our fights

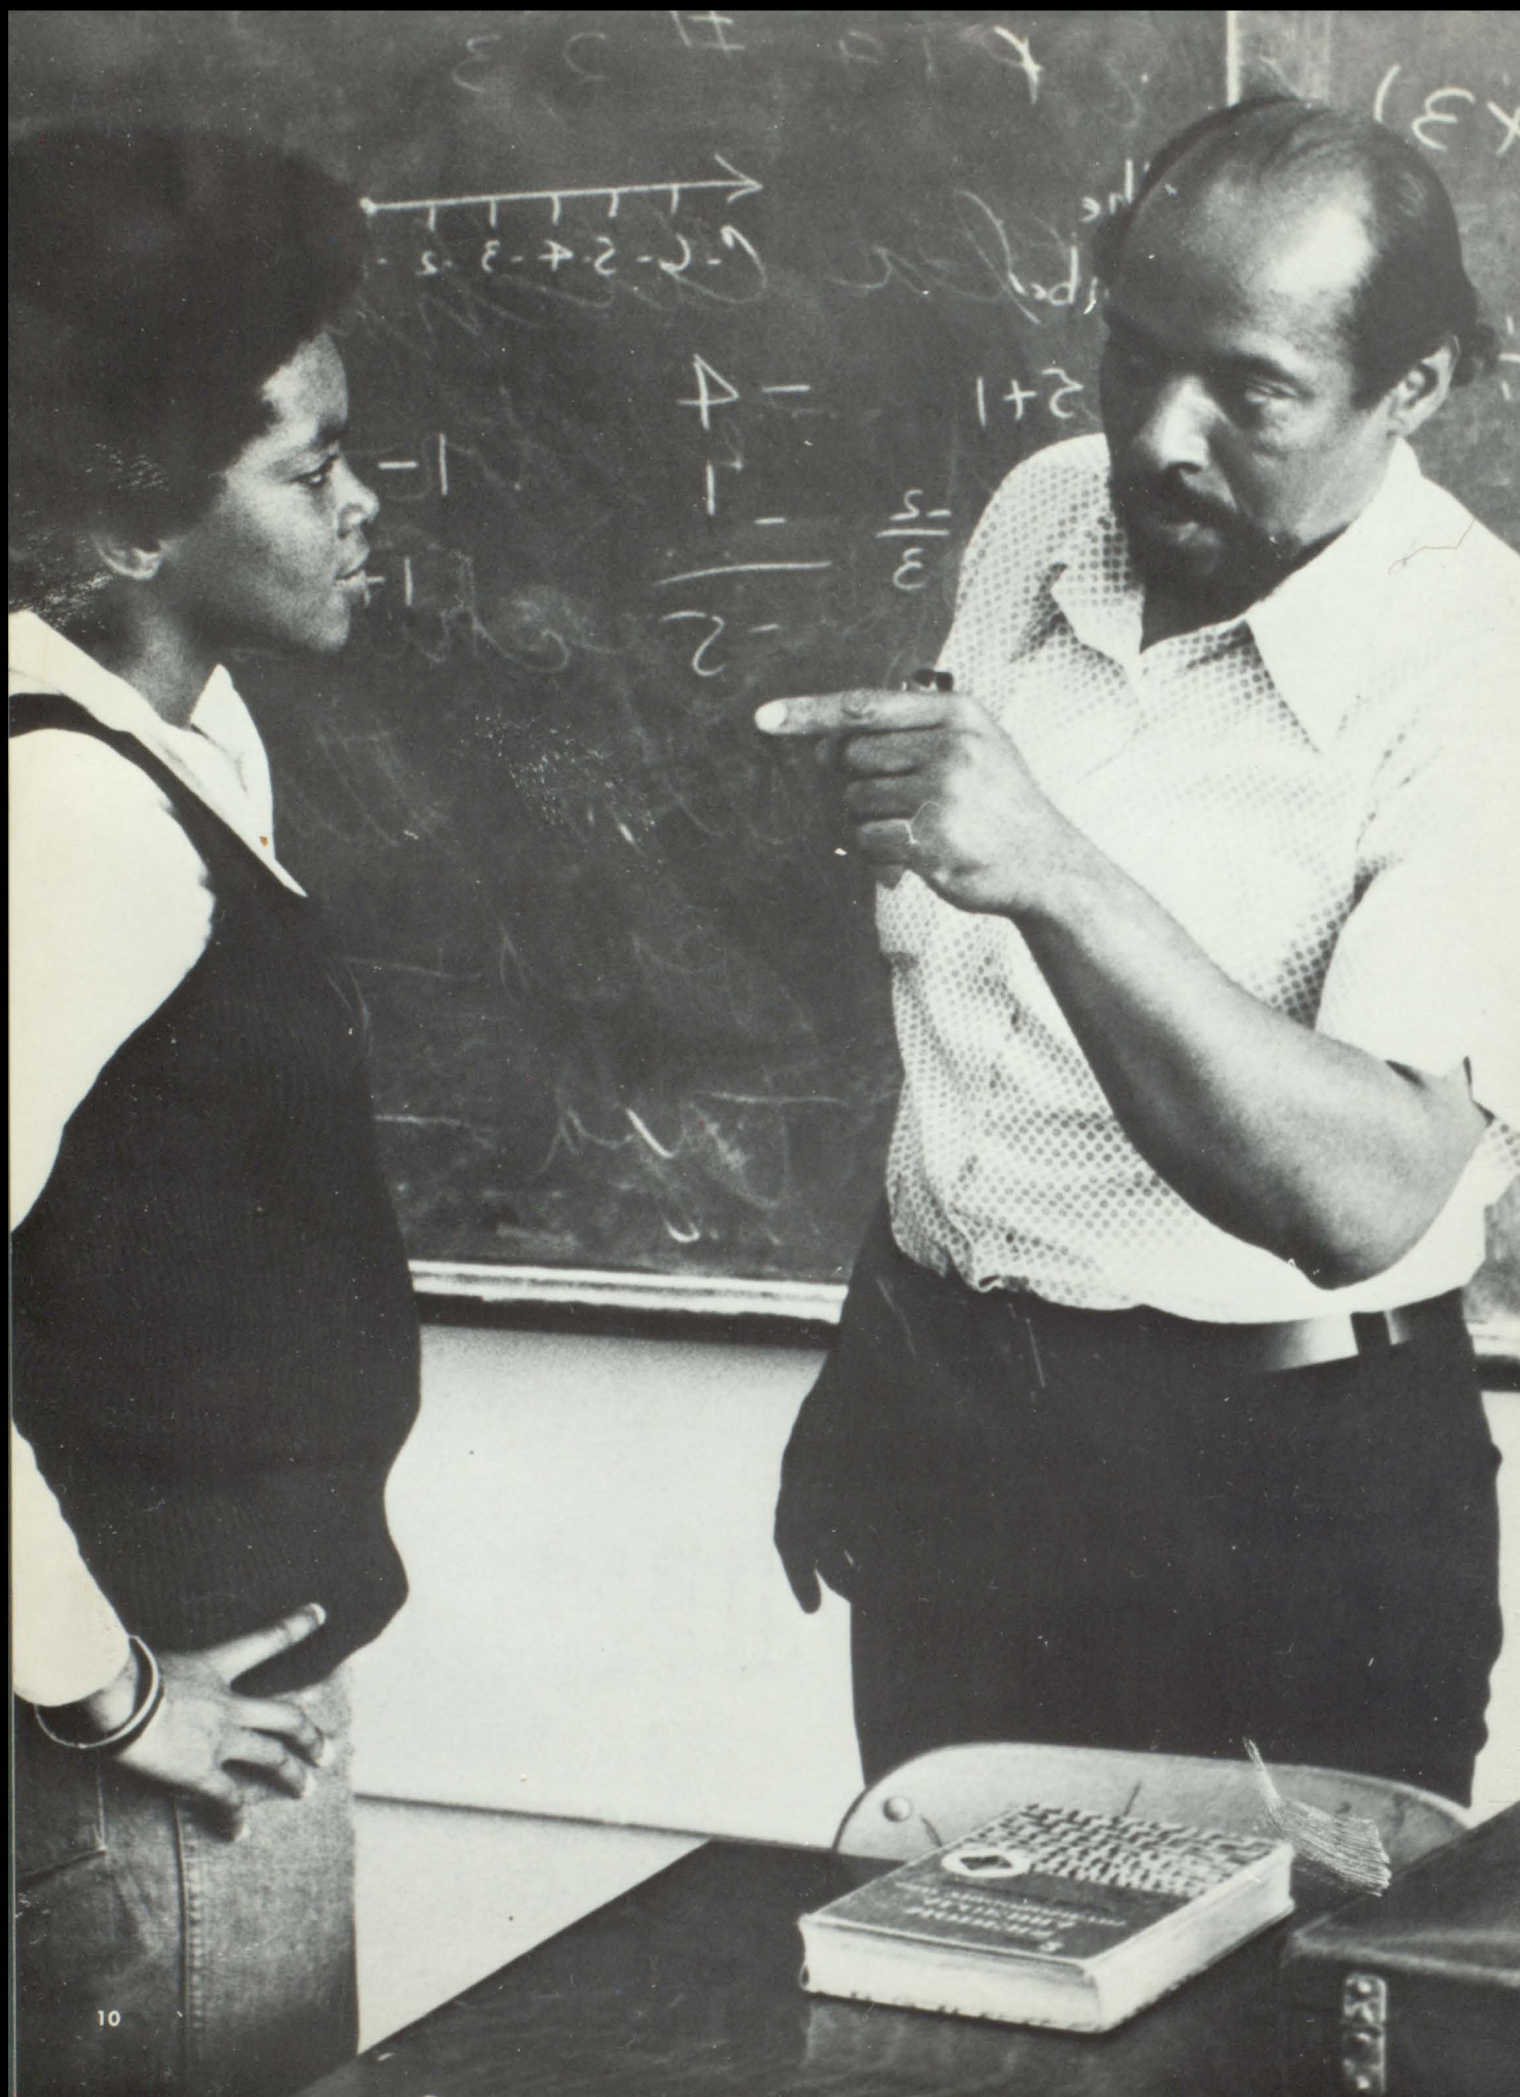

We've fooled around and cut class
And hoped those teachers would let us pass
We've played hooky and sniffed glue
Ducking and dodging you know who

We've cursed out teachers when they made us mad
But we the seniors aren't always bad
We have the knowledge we had to find
We no longer stand behind

We've shared both our love and our hate
Now it's time for you to wait
The memories we've shared we'll never forget
The dreams we've had reality has set

We've got the wisdom we've got the power
This is our most glorious hour

DEDICATION

We, the graduating class of 1973, wish to dedicate this yearbook to Miss Erma Lowe, our teacher, and Mr. Kenneth Bergman, our Administrative Assistant to the Principal, for their devotion to the students and dedication to the excellence of Malcolm X. Shabazz High School.

Throughout all their years at our school both Miss Lowe and Mr. Bergman have worked with diligence and loyalty. It is with these thoughts that we honor them in this yearbook.

CHARLES R. DRIGGINS
Act. Principal

GREETINGS TO OUR SENIORS:

Your day is about to dawn. The goal that once seemed so distant is almost here. Your Alma Mater salutes you for a task well done and a course well run.

Now the future beckons. It is a challenging experience that awaits each one of you. Your success or failure will not be measured in stocks or bonds or fame or glory. Your success or failure will be measured in terms of the spirit.

Give a life consecrated to service to fellow men and it makes little difference whether you are called as long as you serve. May His "Well done ... " be your accolade.

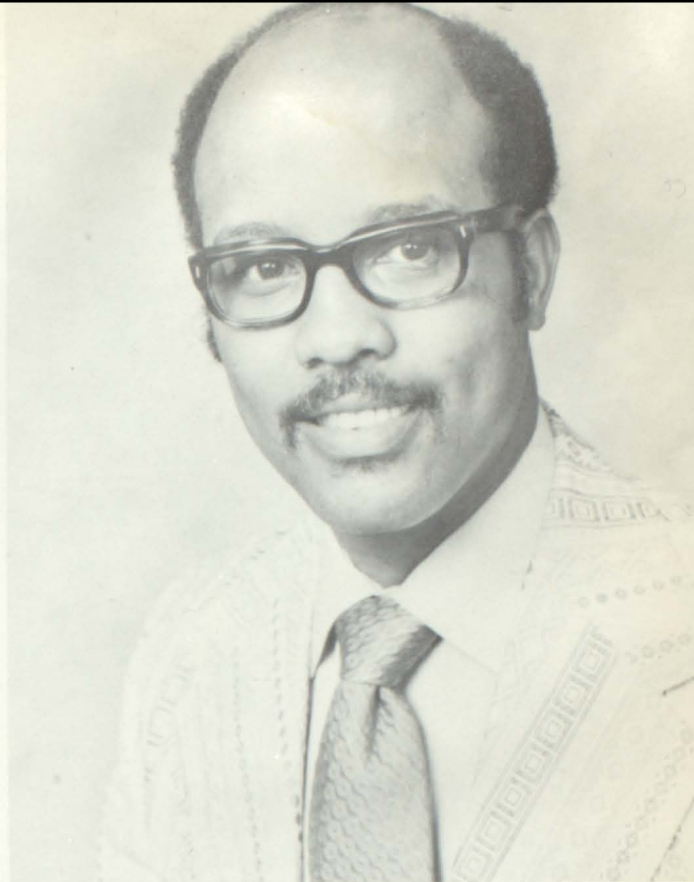

Your friend,

Charles R. Driggins

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of 1973, being out of sound mind and body do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament. May all those included accept the fact that it is upon you to think about and observe the things said and then 'Dig yourself'!

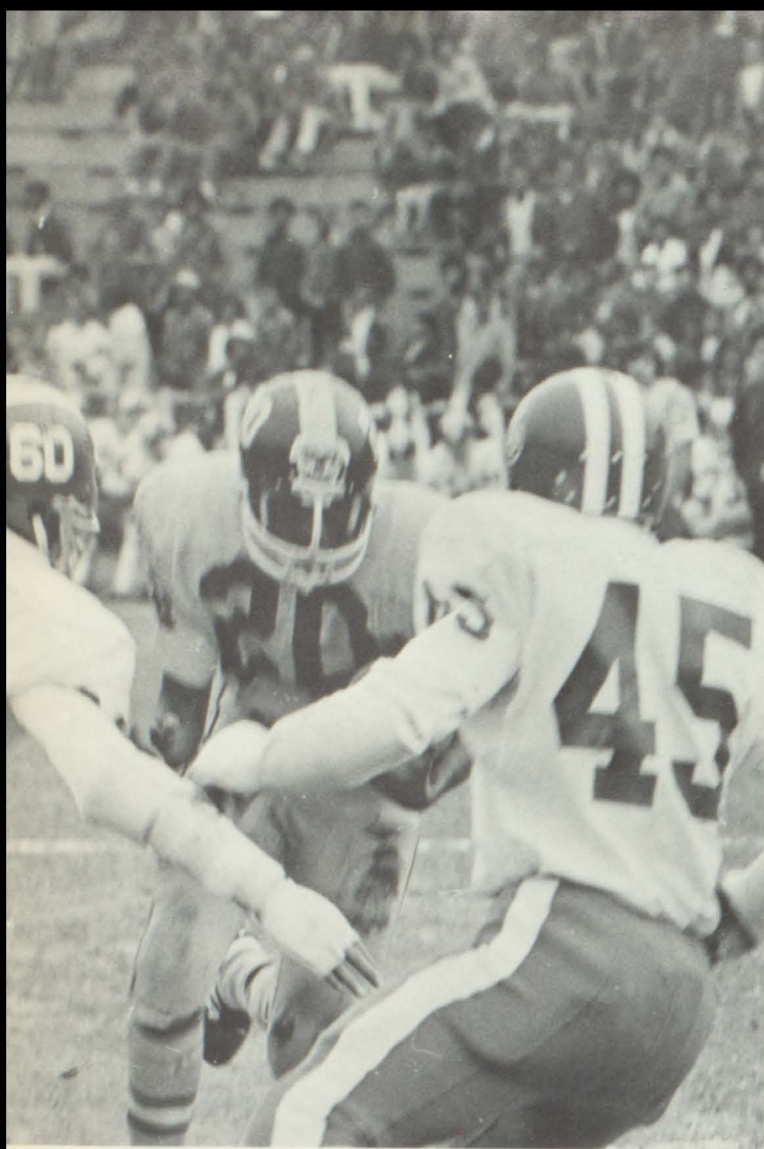

To President Kenneth Adams we leave a mind of his own. To Vice-President Keith Kirland we leave a tobacco plantation. To Recording Secretary Carol Thomas we leave a pair of pants that fit over your hips. To Corresponding Secretary Jonnie Cannon we leave 20-20 vision. To Treasurer Londa Murphy we leave a football and basketball team of your very own. To Financial Secretary Wanda Jones we leave a book entitled "Growing Isn't Easy." To Brenda Brandon we leave a life-time hall pass. To Raleigh Carlton we leave a package of water color markers. To Dennis James we leave a house full of mirrors and twenty-five dwarfs to follow him around chanting: "You are the greatest!" To Joe Hunt we leave a pair of shoes and a shirt and tie. To Sabrina Timmons we leave a mini skirt and an American flag. To Jamie Bailey we leave 101 ways to tell jokes. To John Patterson we leave the starring roll in Peter Pan. To Denise Lee we leave a bout with Joe Frazier and Muhammed Ali to decide the heavy weight champ of the world. To Wynnell Johnson we leave Ronald Estelle. To Andrew Harris we leave a life size picture of himself. To Ruby Barcus we leave a course in English and the ways of up yonder. To the Bradfords we leave twin bottles of Wate-On. To Thomas Williams we leave an unlimited charge account at Larkeys. To Alan Singletary we leave the keys to the school. To Cecil Hubbert we leave Mr. Rizzolo. To Eva McGugan we leave a hankie and a book on leadership. To Deborah Younger we leave our boyfriends. To Tina Love we leave a map of different ways to get to school. To Eddie Hunter we leave John's Bargain Stores. To Sylvia Wise we leave a 36-24-36. To Deborah Wright and Yvonne Parramore we leave Milton Simmons. To Milton Simmons we leave M.K. To Hershel Nicholson we leave a year's supply of Wash-N-Dry for his hands. To Marvin Comick we leave a pair of pants that fit. To Tina Harris we leave a quarterback of her very own. To Gail Allen and Diane Edwards we leave a bikini to be shared in any way they see fit. To James Nickerson we leave a girl over 5 feet tall and 14 years old. To Kevin Barnhill we leave a family size can of Afro Sheen. To Joe Alston we leave an appointment with Eric Hines' dentist. To Danny Willis we leave 10 lunch cards. To Karen Wilkens we leave record she can't dance to. To our beloved cafeteria staff we leave a stomach pump for each table. To Deborah Clark we leave a nose that doesn't point up. To Rob Wilson we leave a pair of Levis. To the football team, twirlers and cheerleaders we leave a season with no rain. To Carol Davis we leave your own business to yourself. To Michael Tyler we leave a crew cut. To Marlene Hobbs we leave the Granny Award. To Mr. Stewart we leave some rags to blend in with his clothes. To Al Henderson we leave a new method to keep track of the pictures he takes. To School-Within-A-School we leave a School-Outside-A-School. To Mr. Alercio we leave a double period chemistry class. To Mr. Martin we leave a gun, a whistle, and an official membership card to the Dick Tracy G-Man Club. To Mr. Driggins we leave the opportunity to be warden of Newark Street Jail. To Mrs. Murphy we leave "some such animal." To Mrs. Hammond we leave a position as a high school couple destroyer. To Mrs. Robinson we leave Geraldine Jones Award. To Miss Lowe we leave peace and quiet after we're gone. To Mrs. Dangel we leave twin beds. To Mr. Spiegel we leave one hundred Mr. Malangas to take orders from him. To Mrs. Sheldon we leave a movie starring her and Mr. Cunningham. To Mr. G. we leave a guest appearance on Wonderama. To Mr. Green we leave a starring role in Superfly. To the Class of '74 we leave the soul and togetherness we didn't have.

M. X. Parts Dance Ensemble

ADVISOR, MISS WASHINGTON

The M.X.S. Parts Dance Ensemble is under the direction of Miss Washington. Although this is Miss Washington's first year at our school, she has organized this dance group with emphasis on the comparison between African Dances and those of Black Americans.

Good News Singers

DIRECTOR, MR. STEWART

The Good News Singers is a gospel choir group that was formed in 1971 by its director, Mr. Charles Stewart, after he was inspired by a visit of the Livingston Gospel Choir. He felt a group like these would appeal to some members of the Malcolm X. student body and it did with great success. It currently has a membership of sixty and awards two scholarships to members of the graduating class.

"It has often been quoted, 'There is a time to sow, and a time to reap; a time to laugh, and time to weep; a time to love and a time to die.' In the dying, for every living thing must, there is a process of growing. Trees grow, flowers grow, animals grow; why is it then that man stops growing when he reaches a certain age. He has the potential to grow right up to the time that he 'shuffles off this mortal coil.' Yet, quite often, he does not! Why is this? When all he has to do is reach for a book, open its pages and READ. From the pages of that book, and all subsequent books, he is sent whirling into the crucible which can forge for his later years tempered molds of circumspection, love, compassion, understanding of his fellow man, yea, and perhaps even wisdom! None other of God's creations can do that! And perhaps equally important is that in molding his own spirit he can reach out his hand and take a friend along with him. Is there any greater gift?"

"A Pattern For Living"
Charles Edward St. John

"Herein lies the tragedy of the age: not that men are poor — all men know something of poverty; not that men are wicked — who is good? Not that men are ignorant — what is the truth? Nay, but that men know so little of men.

The Test of Time
by Forrest McCloud

By and by there'll come a day
When we will both be old and grey.
Rocking, rocking endlessly
Life is then a memory.

We'll recall the times we've had,
Remembering the good, forgetting the bad
Sitting, knitting, an occasional sigh,
Gently humming, waiting to die.

Though all our dreams have not come true,
You still have me and I have you.
At the top of the mountain so few have climbed,
Our love will stand the test of time.
